

William J. Hancock

Email: whancock@harrisonmoberly.com

PRIMARY PRACTICE

Construction Law, Public Contract Law, Surety Law, Commercial Law, Alternative Dispute Resolution

EXPERIENCE

Mr. Hancock concentrates his practice in representing and advising construction and commercial clients with a wide range of legal needs. He is also a Registered Civil Mediator and serves as a panel arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association, focusing on construction disputes.

EDUCATION

Indiana University, B.S., 1979; Indiana

University, J.D., cum laude, 1982

BAR ADMISSION

Indiana, Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Northern Districts of Indiana, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, U.S. Court of Federal Claims, Supreme Court of the United States

MEMBER

Indianapolis, Indiana and American (Public Contract Law Section, Forum Committee on the Construction Industry) Bar Associations; Panel Arbitrator, National Panel of Construction Arbitrators, American Arbitration Association; American Arbitration Association Indianapolis Construct Advisory Committee; registered civil mediator, Indiana Commission for Continuing Legal Education Registry of Approved Court Mediators

SPEAKER AND LECTURER

Indiana Continuing Legal Education Forum; National Business Institute; Lorman Business Center, Inc.; Professional Education Systems, Inc.; Associated General Contractors of Indiana; Mechanical Contractors Association of Indiana, Inc.; Indiana Constructors, Inc.; Asphalt Pavement Association of Indiana, Inc.; Indiana Mineral Aggregates, Inc.; Indiana Women in Construction; Construction Specifications Institute (Indiana Chapter); AACE International (Indiana Section); Glazing Contractors Association (Detroit); Purdue University Superintendents Conference; George S. Olive & Co. Construction Industry Conference